

brella classic canvas

Bradmill Outdoor Fabrics is Australia's largest and most experienced manufacturer of canvas fabric for exterior awnings and blinds via our industry benchmark Brella "the fabric of life" Classic Canvas Collection.

The quality of our Brella range of external awning canvas is unmatched by other's and widely considered "best in class". Based in Melbourne, we distribute our products throughout Australia and New Zealand.

We operate a Quality Management System accredited to ISO 9001-2015 and our Brella "the fabric of life" brand has been made in Australia now for over 60 years.

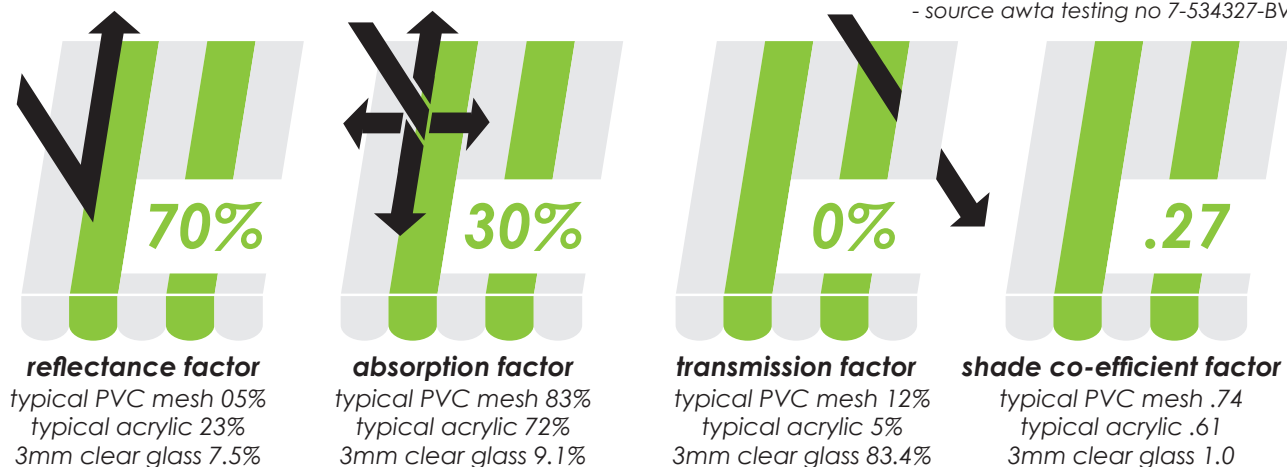

We are Australian made and proud of it!

It's not just the vast array of architecturally inspired patterns and colours that make our Brella Classic Canvas so fabulous, it's also the feel and texture of the fabric which inspires so many architects and designers to use our products.

We call it Architexture and it's Brella.
